Allen Edwards: Hope & Climate Change

Finding Hope in a time of Climate Change

We are already seeing climate-related tragedies unfold, and sadly, decades of efforts by activists to stop it have had little effect. In the face of this reality, it's natural to lose hope for our future. BUT, there is another way of responding – one that builds climate resilience for our local community! Rather than trying to convince others to act, we can act for ourselves on ecological regeneration – in soil, croplands, and forests.

PECA invites you to come watch, listen, ask questions, and join a discussion about a local Community Regeneration Project. - Sunday June 2nd at 1:15!

Sunday, June 2, 1:15 pm

Fireside Room, 1st Congregational Church of Auburn
710 Auburn Ravine Rd. Auburn, 95603
